NEW YORK, MONDAY, JANUARY 11, 1892.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

by "The Evening World."

serted Last Night.

NEW YORK'S OUTLAWS.

[A Table Subject to Datty Change,]

FRANK STEVENSON In tilding. THE LIVINGSTONS Closed CARBY WRLCH......Closed JIM McCORMICK ... Dive Annex Closed. JIM SULLIVAN Divo Annex Closed.

PICKWICK SCRIBNER, Dive Annex Closed

THE EVENING WORLD'S crusade against the outlaws of New York, waged in the in-

TURNING THEM AWAY AT KELLY'S. crew, struck his colors Saturday night and powerful search-light these creatures have Gould's have constantly been recently, and in placed a placard at the entrance to his " Hole son in retirement.

The police authorities have taken official voke the licenses under which the Excise Exlikelihood do so at its next meeting. Captains of the police precincts in which the other as are situated have also been ordered to

The war will go on until they have been permanently driven out of business. The moral influence which caused the indict ment, conviction and punishment of Me Billy McGlory is still in good working order and it is fully capable of coping with the evi should the regularly constituted authorities prove derelict.

The outlaws must go, and go for good.

THIS LOOKS LIKE BUSINESS.

There was an unusual gathering of police captains in Supt. Murray's office at Headquarters this morning. They had been sum oned by the Superintendent to consult with him in regard to the suppression of the out-laws' dens, which have been the subject of Capt. Refily, of the Ninetcenth Precinct Capt. McCullagh, of the Fourteenth; Capt. Ryan, of the Flitteenth; Capt. Thompson, of the Eighth, and Acting Capt. Creeden, of the Eleventh, were on hand. They went one by one into the Superintendent's private office, where they were met by their Chief, together

When they came out their faces wore i declined to talk about the subject of the con-

At the same time District-Attorney Nicoli, his assignation-room being closed and dark as id the city of these netorious dens of vice.

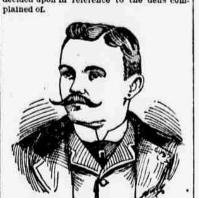

dens described by THE EVENING WORLD are lo- better for him had these preparations been cated, and the general talk about the Central completed a little earlier, but with his usual Office, both point to the conclusion that the carelessness on such little points as closing police are about to take vigorous measures to hours, he kept open a little after midnight There is very little doubt that the matter will old he unwisely sold a policeman, in disguise be brought to the immediate attention of the a glass of beer. He was promptly arrested. Grand Jury as soon as competent witnesses. The Silde, on Bloccker street, and Tom but in the place. The habitues thought that have been secured to testify to the unlawful Gould's underground resort, at Sixth avenue—the dive was about to be raided by the police. and Twenty-third street, remained closed and they made a rush for the doors. practices of the keopers of these places.

District-Attorney Nicoli declined to talk Saturday night as well as last night. All was and when Sunday was about fifteen minutes upon the subject this afternoon. He said that dark and descrited and few persons even made. Policemen Lesson and Dolan came to his astter was one which he was absolutely an attempt to gain entrance to cliber den. prevented from discussing in any form.

MANAGER DAVIS ARRESTED.

MR. CARRY WELCH. " You must draw your own conclusions," he

An Unusual State of Affairs Due to "Evening World" Exposures. The new year is only eleven days old, but it has witnessed during its brief existence a ous establishments tightly closed.

Every one of the dens kept by these men was open and in full blast a week ago Sunday night. Last night they were all dark and de-

It was a great victory for THE EVENING

WORLD, under the steady glare of whose

Tom Gould's basement dive at Sixth avenue and Twenty-third street has been closed and the law's strong arm compelled Billy McGlory to attend divine service on Black-well's Island yesterday morning, but the closing of the other outlaws' dens last nigh was due solely to the exposures made by THE was closed at midnight Friday, it was evident too, would soon be numbered with the closed

Supt. Murray's recommendations to the Board of Excise that the licenses of "The Hole in the Wall" and "The Excise Exchange" be revoked was another promising indication that the police were about to act.

But in spite of all these encouraging circumtances there was a big surprise in store for

THE EVENING WORLD'S investigators when hey called at the "Hole in the Wall" at 11.30 Saturday night. They had confidently expected to see Mr. Carey Welch's barroom at least open and a fair amount of legitimate

ALL ITS ENTRANCES SEALED.

"The Hole in the Wall" was corked tighter than it had ever been before. The main doors and the side or "Family Entrance," as Mr.

Carey Weich is pleased to call it, were locked,

empty bar and ; assignation-room | faintly

And yet Mr. Carey Welch had done more

It was a touching sight. Mr. Carey Welch

Around at "Farley's Hotel," 78 Third illuminated by a solitary gas-jet.

the uncurtained windows revealed

When THE EVENING WORLD announced

since the murder there on Christmas morn, been compelled to slink into retirement.

est and most public of its streets.

(Licensee of the "Hole in the Wall.")
'Hones: "John Kelly's assignation-room at midnight. At McCormick's, a few doors above, business was closed promptly at midnight. two dives, Carey Welch's "Hole in the Wall At the Pickwick there was a little flurry of state of affairs never before seen in the business in the barroom, but no attempt was change," which were transmitted to them

> OTHER LICENSES MAY BE BEVOLED. The investigations were made in each in stance at the request of President Alexander Meakim, of the Board of Excise, who is determined to close these places as well as several others which have been exposed by Tu-liquor or beer had been sold after that hour.

He was locked up, however, for the night, despite his protestations, and yesternay morn

The Excise Board is proparing to take

Yesterday, for the first time in years, Out- 80 far as their original intents and pur-laws Stevenson, Kelly, Scribner, Welch, Sul-THE DESCLATED PICKWICE. This morning, in reply to the communica sible date. It is expected that they will be change" they found every resort locked and held on Wednesday, or Thursday at the barred as tightly as "The Slide" or Tom

MR. CARRY WELCH UNBASY. Mr. Carey Welch, whose "Hole in the Wall" on Fourth avenue has been exposed deserted establishments were visible from He called on the Excise Commissioners this glocmy, but stray rays of light from the street lamps snowed that their shades were not surrender his license, which would be a guarantee that the den would be kept closed window of the "Hole in the Wall," and policemen near the Pickwick and the Excise confirmed the reporters' opinions by the sentencius remark:

"You bet they're closed."

"Annuage Davis Locked Up.

Held for Trial for Having Violated the Excise Regulations.

Every day brings new developments in the fight which The Evening Work and the honorous dens conducted by them in open you had not the place, as made to the places, the Excise Exchange, at 300 Bowery, although its wickedness has been thoroughly exposed by The Excise Regulation and women.

Every dot the places, the Excise Exchange, at 300 Bowery, although its wickedness has been thoroughly exposed by The Excise Reset, of which Stevenson's "Silde," and another density of the places, the Excise Exchange, at 300 Bowery, although its wickedness has been thoroughly exposed by The Excise Reset, of which Stevenson's "Silde," and another density of the places, the Excise Exchange, at 300 Bowery, although its wickedness has been thoroughly exposed by The Excise Reset, of which Stevenson's "Silde," and another density of the places, seemed to have no effect upon its putative properietor, one Alired Davis, and during that evening the place was frequented by its clientele of depraved men and women.

Capit Ryan, however, was keeping a close watch upon this place, and three officers of his precince were assigned to duty in the angloborhood. They were attired in citizens of the service of the control of the place, and three officers of his precince were assigned to duty in the angloborhood. They were attired in citizens of the service of the control of the place, as and a first angletic at the control of the place, and any of the place was a frequented by its clientele of depraved men and women.

Capit Ryan, however, was keeping a close watch upon this place, and three officers of his precinct were assigned to duty in the angloborhood. They were attired in citizens of this precince of a many and the control of the place was an owned to altered the control of the place of the p

Admiral Walker's flagship, arrived at some video this morning.

The other vessels of his squadron, the Atlanta and the Bennington, were last reported at Bahia. They are expected to joint the Chicago at Montevideo.

The future novements of these vessels will be governed entirely by circumstances. They were ordered to proceed to Montevideo and seasiff of the defense, said that he worked in confirm the first proceed to Montevideo and seasiff of the defense, said that he worked in confirm the first proceed to Montevideo and the governed entirely by circumstances. They were ordered to proceed to Montevideo and the said for the defense, said that he worked in confirm the first proceed to the state of the defense, said that he worked in confirm the strength of the defense, said that he worked in the stifying for the defens

12.15 on Sunday morning. No one recognized him. Men and women were there in all tages of drunkenness, and beer and liquor bar to the parties at the little tables which Officer Connor walked over to the bar and ordered a glass of whisker, which was served

Officer Conners hung on to his prisoner, and however, its patrons had all disappeared, most of them slinking down the side streets, and seeking less public resorts, for there are many such places in that locality.

DAVIS LOCKED UP FOR THE STATE OF THE STATE DAVIS LOCKED UP FOR THE NIGHT.

At the station Davis claimed that he had as could crowd into the ample Part III. of the MRS. BRINCKERHOFF. President will issue a proclamation suspends-examination of Theodore Thomas Brinckerhoff by little Abe Hummel, counsel ing the provisions of this section.

The resolution further recites that such acfor the fair plaintiff, was the feature of the morning.

his first wife, who was the plaintiff's sister. With his father and sister at the fashionable of the McKiniey bill.

Yosemite, 550 Park avenue.

Yosemite, 550 Park avenue. Yosemite, 550 Park avenue.

forgotten whether he had kissed her in seven phere upon which no export duties are Iffile woman, whose eyes twinkled every time she was mentioned as the stepmother of the callow Theodore.

Theodore and John Gibson and William Steinert at different times when the witness was thirteen years old accompanied his stepmother to Saratoga, Lake George, the Catsuilla and other places. That these men registered her name, and that Theodore was supposed to sleep with the mate except.

But he had played 'possum some tights: had only scenned to sleep, and had, with one eye open, seen things which his blushing little stepmother had preferred that he did not see.

Court-Martial's Verdict Forwarded to President Harrison.

A secret session of the court-martial before which Major Charles Throckmorton, second Artillery, U. S. A., has been on trial, charged with duplicating his pay accounts and issuing wortnless checks, was held at the Army Building teday, and the Duziness of the Court cancluded.

The conclusions of the court-martial were made up and forwarded to the Secretary of War, who will forward them to the President for final review.

BIG JEWELRY FAILURE.

BIG JEWELRY FAILURE.

President Agriculture of Maiden Lane, and BIG JEWELRY FAILURE.

BIG JEWELRY FAILURE.

President Mr. Burnhed go away, said the wines was up his chew by and me, went out on the sidewalk and looked up at Mrs. Burnhow to see it the light Mrs. Burnhow to see it the light Mrs. Burnhow to see it the light Mrs. Brinckerhoff is window to see it the light Mrs. Burnhow to s ling: "I don't know. I wasn't on duty in the Priefer Jandorf and Charles Jandorf, of the firm of P. Jandorf a Brother, dealers in dismonds and jeweiry at 51 Maiden lane, made an assignment to-day to Hertjan A. Rosenfeld, with preferences of $12,500. Among the preferences are L. & M. Kahn & Co., $3,000; Stern Bros. & Co., $3,000; Stern Bros. & Co., $4,000; Exec. and that it is witness swore that witness the Common Council at the Sabe global properties of $2,500; Frank & Co., $2,000, and R. A. Rosenfeld & Co., $2,000.

INV ASSOCIATED PRESS. ADEN, can. 11.-It was announced some me ago that the Arabinsurrection in Yemen had been quelled by the Turkish troops and that the country was quiet again.
It is now stated that the rebellion is renewed, and that the insurgents are under the leadership of Ahmed Addin, a descendant of the former rulers of Yemen.

are advancing to repel them. fanatics of their religious sects, are, with life-likeness with the larger inanimate their followers, rising everywhere against figure. The telegraph wires between Sanaa and

Advance of the Rebels. INT ASSOCIATED PHESS. 1

TANGIER, Jan. 11.-The rebels are evidently other nations, calling attention to Section 3 of the McKinley act relative hitherto confined their operations to a radius to reciprocity, and stating that the some little distance from Tangler. They President deems the duties imposed by these countries to be reciprocally inequal into the interior of the country, and it is beand unreasonable, and that unless on or be-fore March 15 next some satisfactory comfore March 15 next some satisfactory com-mercial arrangement is entered into the quantities of provisions, &c., destined for Tangter.

van has fallen into their hands. The rebels tion by the President would be unconstitutan, for they are now approaching the city moving on the city has added greatly to the only eight voted in favor of it.

Condition of the Heir of Wales More Favorable To-Day. INT APPOCIATED PRESS. LONDON, Jan. 11 .- A despatch from Saudringham, the residence of the Prince of Dr. Talmage.

SEVEN DEATHS FROM GRIP. Decrease in the Average Mortality Rate Reported To-Day.

The Bureau of Vital Statistics reports 105 deaths in this city for the twenty-four hours caused by the grip.

In the Sunday report there were fourteen deaths from grip in a total of 134.

There are Tis policemen on the sick list today. ended at noon to-day, of which seven were Botler Exp lodes Killing Two Men. MORRISTOWN, Pa., Jan. 11.-A boiler in Moraistows, Pa., Jan. 11.—A boller in A. II. March's pork packing establishment, across the river in Bridgeport, exploded this momenter at Perry's Pharmacy.

London & Liverpool Clothing Co.'s k will be sold on Thursday next. Read their ertisement to-morrow.

TALMAGE'S BUST IN COURT,

Sculptors Sue Treasurer Wood for the Purchase Price.

It Is Claimed that the Bust Is Not a Good Likeness.

A terra paca bust of Rev. Dr. T. DeWith Talmage faced a jury in Part II. of the The rebels are marching upon Sanaa, the Supreme Court this morning. Several cabicapital city of Yemen, and the Turkish forces net-sized photographs of the famous pastor The Sheiks, who have been incited by the base of the bust, challenging comparison for of the Brooklyn Tabernacle stood against the

BUST OF REV. T. DEWITT TALMAGE. The bust and the photographs were exhib-Its in the suit of Jacob Schwarz & Co., the tatuary firm at 171 Fifth avenue, this city, to recover the price of fifty busts made under a contract with John Wood, Treasurer of Talmage's Tabernacle, and which Treasurer Wood refused to accept and pay for, because he declared that the busts did not look like phere upon which no export duttes are imposed, so long as such nation adminstor its ports free of all nations, municipal and other taxes, flour, comments and other breadstuffs, preserved meats, nan, vegetables and fruits, cottonseed oil, rice, tumber, agricultural implements, &c., or such other products as may be agreed upon. Objected to by Mr. Burrows, of Michigan.

CYRUS FIELD'S DAUGHTER DEAD

Mrs. Lindley's Long Suffering Ended This Morning.

The Bromm in Ireland—A Hearse Abandoned in a Snowdrift.

The Bromm in Ireland—A Hearse Abandoned in a Snowdrift.

The Bromm in Ireland—A Hearse Abandoned in a Snowdrift.

The Bromm in Ireland—A Hearse Abandoned in a Snowdrift.

The Roll in the storm of the brown of 1800 in the fore of schwarz & Co. and save central the world soon return; his clumb in the storm of the stor spread in this city. The records yesterday show an increase of seventy in number of Mrs. Grace Field married Daniel Allen Lindley, E. M. Field's partner, March 5, 1874.

The first indication of Mrs. Lindley's approaching end was manifested at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Her physician was hastly summoned, and when he saw her condition he informed the household that she could not live much longer. The doctor remained with her until the end.

Her husband, David A. Lindley; Cyrus W. Field, her father, and Mrs. W. F. Judson were at her Ledside when she breathed her last.

Spread in this city. The records yesterday show an increase of seventy in number of seventy in number of deaths resulting from the influenza.

Thirteen Persons Injured in a Viazma. The first one completed was sent to Treasure Wood's store March 10, 1800, and the following week a paragraph appeared in the Christian Herald, of which Dr. Taimage had reight train at the Selika station on the Window of Treasurer Wood's store, and that one of these blusts would be given as a premium to the person sending in the first seventy-five subscriptions, Treasurer Wood at her less the property of the sculptor and told him that they had explayed the devil with the doctor's mouth.

Schwarz & Co. claim that when nobody sent in seventy-five subscriptions, Treasurer Wood's store was on exhibition in the window of Treasurer Wood's store, and that one of these blusts would be given as a premium to the person sending in the first seventy-five subscriptions for the paper.

Schwarz & Co. claim that when nobody sent in seventy-five subscriptions for the paper.

Schwarz & Co. claim that they had explayed the devil with the doctor's mouth.

nouth.

The bust was taken back to Schwarz &
The bust was taken back to Schwarz & The bust was taken back to Schwarz & Co, shad the mouth was widened, but still Treasurer Wood declined to accept the busts. The trial was set for Part II., but was the shields.

THE ROYAL LOVERS SNUBBED, The contract, busts and photographs being in evidence. Schwarz & Co's employees testined to obtaining the five photographs on exhibition and to the refusal of Treasurer Wood to accept the busts, and to-day Frank Capello, a sculptor of fitteen years' and Albert Layron Roston, an artist of forty-five years' experience were placed on the stand as ex-

Dublin Corporation Rejects an Address of Congratulation.

Address of Congratulation.

INV ANSOCIATED PRESS.1

DUBLIN, Jan. 11.—A few days ago a meeting of the Corporation of Dublin was called at which it was proposed to adopt an address of congratulation upon the approaching marriage of the Duke of Ciarence and Avondale and Princess Victoria Mary of Teck.

On that secasion no quorum was present, and it was, therefore, impossible to transact any business.

At a meeting of the Corporation to-day the address was presented.

There were forty-five members present who voted on the question of adoption and thirty-seven voted against the proposition, while only eight voted in favor of it.

Layton Roston, all artist of forty-art years series, and the stand as experience were placed on the bust. With this testiment Lawyer then ye. He and the bust was a priest likeness of the bust. Lawyer Chas. M. Steffert's motion to dismiss the suit on the ground that the bust were forty fits address where the sample bust delivered because it dubt flook like the Dootor. The firm agreed to alter the mouth of the bust, but so far as he could see there was no more of the bust.

At a meeting of the Corporation to-day the address was presented.

There were forty-five members present who voted on the question of adoption and thirty-seven voted against the proposition, while only eight voted in favor of it.

Cloudy, Colder, with Snow Flurries. U. S. WEATHER BU-morning, completely wrecking the plant.

Two men were killed and eight others seriously injured, two or whom will probably die. Average temperature for corresponding date last

Manhattan Beer made from Malt & Hops The J. Chr. G. Hupfel Bug. Co., 229 E. 38th st. 2

Total gain per day 36,213

Outlaws Finally Brought to Time

Their Dens All Dark and De-

Manager Davis, of the Excise Exchange, Under Arrest.

Supt. Murray Calls His Police Captains to a Conference on the Dives.

BILLY McGLORY. In the Penitentiary. TOM GOULD,

"HONEST" JOHN KELLY, Dive Annex Closed.

terests of decency and good order, has resulted in another decisive victory for the

A glance over the table given above will serted and not a drink was passed over their show that the notorious annexes to the dens bars. conducted by these men have all been closed. Mr. Carey Welch, the most deflunt of the in the Wall " bearing this legend: CLOSED.

That placard was still in position last night, action looking to the cleaning out of the pest-EVENING WORLD. holes against which THE EVENING WORLD'S Saturday that Mr. Carey Welch, the most search-light has been directed. Supt. Murray has recommended that the Excise Board redeflant member of the outlaw octet, was weakening and that his " Hole in the Wall" change and the "Hole in the Wall" have been conducted, and the Board will in all that the climax was coming and that his den, collect evidence against the outlaws.

District - Attorney Nicoli Confere with Police Supt. Murray.

Fearing that some one might possibly have a suspicion that business was still being done in his den, although it was difficult to under THE EVENING WORLD'S expendered during the stand how such a thing could be possible, he had pasted in one of his saloon windows placard bearing in large letters the single word; had given notice of his unconditional surren with Inspectors Steers and Williams. serious and thoughtful expression, and they avenue, Mr. Welch's former partner in the old "Golden Horn," Mr. Jim Sullivan, did a fair business Saturday night in his barroom only, who had called early at Police Headquarters, usual. At 12 o'clock he closed his bar too, was closeted with Inspector Byrnes. After- and turned every one out. wards they went together into Supt. Murray a Manager Davis, of the Livingstons' Excise private room and held a long consultation. Exchange, made a bluff at keeping that place Then the District-Attorney and Chief Inspec- open Saturday night. He wishes now that tor took a cab and came downtown together. he hadn't. The fact that the police captains summoned to Headquarters this morning are all Davis began making preparations to close in command of precincts in which the outlaw up just before midnight. It would have been

A reporter of THE EVENING WORLD inquired of Supt. Murray whether any victim had been aud. "It will not do for me to talk upon the subject. We can't go looking for dives with subject. We can't go looking for dives with closed in reality.

ALL CLOSED LAST NIGHT.

ALL DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PERSON OF THE PERSO

CAREY WELOR'S PLACARD.

Welch's.

the street.

ALL SHUT UP TIGHT LAST NIGHT.

nearly every instance the interiors of the

The Pickwick and the Excise were dark and gloomy, but stray rays of light from the street

Every part of the interior of Kelly's, M.

Cormick's, Welch's and Sullivan's barrooms could be plainly seen from the street. The placard reading "closed" was still in the window of the "Hole in the Wall," and policemen near the Pickwick and the Excise neighborhood. They were attired in citizens' iress, so as not to attract attention. The cappers for the dive knew two of the police-was Officer Frank Conner, a young man who SERVED DRINK TO AN OFFICER.

At midnight on Saturday the front door of the dive was closed as usual, but the side door was open, and any one who chose could Peliceman Cennor sauntered in about were being carried by the waiters from the to him. Davis, who is a tall, thin man with a black mustache, was standing at the bar at the time. Contor knew him, and as soon as he had tasted the liquor walked up to him and showing his official shield told him that

THE HABITURS PRARED A BAID

In an instant there was a tremendous hub-are scattered about the room.

he was under arrest.

enter.

has only teen on the force about two weeks.

Officers Leeson and Dolan, but the third drawn and that the places were deserted.

GRORGE M'KNIGHT.

ing was taken before Justice Divver, of the was again unoccupied except by emptiness | Jefferson Market Police Court. on Saturday night, and Walter Dandy Jack's . There Davis made the same statement that lack of employment made time hang heavily he had given to the police, but the magistrate accepted the vollceman's story, and the patrons without the customary back-room General Sessions on the charge of violating patrons without the customer by one they all the Excise law. He procured a bondsmar dropped out, and the barroom, too, was closed and left the court. Last night the place was effectually closed and the lights were out-was still duller. There was absolutely no prompt action upon the reports of Police activity whatever, even in the barroom, which capts. McCullagh and Ryan, regarding the metropolis since vice and debauchery were made to run the assignation-room, and the last Saturday, with Supt. Murray's recompermitted to exist unrestrained in the busi

"family eptrance," as on Friday night, was mendation that the itemses of both places be family entrance," as on Friday night, was mendation that the licenses of both places be again closed and locked.

livan, McCormick and the Livingstons ob-served the sabbath by keeping their nefari-on Saturday night. Last night they were to him requesting that Capts. Ryan and Mc Cullagh call at the office of the Commission ers and furnish them with the names of all witnesses who could testify to the character When EVENING WORLD investigators called at the Pickwick, McCormick's, Kelly's, set down for a hearing at the earliest pos Sullivan's and "The Excise Ex-

The Board, or rather President Meakim, does not look with favor upon such a proposition.

The license now stands in the name of George McKnight, and is practically controlled by Weich, who owns the place and runs it personally. Weich simply wants to Folicemen Leeson and Dolan came to his assistance. They did not have much to do, however, for Davis made no attempt to get away.

They waited in the saloen until the place was cleared and the Mercer street station with their prisoner without making any other arrests.

The arrest caused great excitement in the neighborhood, and the crowds which were passing along the street at that hour stopped to see what was going on, for the sight was an unusual one.

A few mercents after the place was closed.

TALES OF MRS. BRINCKERHOFF

Salon MRS. Brinckerhoff out, 10, 1884, 10, 1

M'KINLEY BILL RETALIATION.

Unconstitutional, Says Breckinridge, of Kentucky.

of Kentucky, asked unanimous consent in the louse to-day to offer a resolution reciting Tangler Excited Over a Reported the letters written by the Secretary of state (by direction of the President to the diplomatic representatives of Veneiela, Nicaragua, Colombia, Honduras and

Theodore is the son of the cracker baker by tional, onerous and unjust, and instructs the Committee on Ways and Means to report be- The announcement that He is a youth of twenty years, and he lives fore Feb. 25 a bill repealing the third section

He testified that he liked his beautiful, blue-eyed, yellow-haired young step-mother very much, but he blushingly deciared that he had imposed, so long as such nation admits Then he told startling stories of the per- to its ports free of all national formances of the round and rosy and smiling municipal and other taxes, flour, commen

Missing from His Hotel and Immigrants Claim Money. Daniel Hamilton, proprietor of Hamilton's

missing, not having been seen for six days Manager Hanbury, of the hotel, says that the affairs of the hotel are in a muddled con-Joseph Yarnell and other immigrants claim that they left over $1,000 with Hamilton.

Mr. Hamilton did a small banking business and are clamoring for their money.

in connection with his hotel.

Hotel on Clarkson Street, near West street

His home is on Staten Island. He owned many fast horses. His clerk expects that he may be in the city to-morrow. Dr. Graves Sentenced to Death. DENVER, COL. Jan. 11.-Dr. Graves, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Barnaby, has seven voted against the proposition, while

Mrs. Barnaby was killed by poison in a bot-

Republicans Tie Newark's Council.